Green Initiatives and Challenges

Date of activity	Organiser	Who can register	Event Details	Open for Media Coverage
8 Jul - 25 Sep	CapitaLand	General Public	Project Green Raffles City Singapore's Project Green initiative was launched to galvanise the community, including shoppers, tenants, and hotel guests, to adopt a greener lifestyle and create a bigger positive impact for the environment together. To commemorate the launch of Project Green, a sustainability-centric showcase was launched on 8 July 2022 and will be held till 25 September 2022 to serve as a suitable platform for the community to shed light and expand on their green offerings. Shoppers can learn more about the community projects and how each one of them is encouraging Singaporeans to take action to fight climate change through an engaging series of educational content, green activities and upcycling workshops to multiply the efforts of Project Green. From 16 to 25 September, Raffles City is collaborating with Design Singapore and The Front Row, as it presents #FashTag x Raffles City Singapore, a Singapore Design Week take-over. It will extend the Project Green narrative on sustainable and cruelty-free fashion, and shares its belief that industry stakeholders are imperative vanguards to champion eco-awareness and responsible consumerism for the present and the future. Venue: Raffles City, Level 3 Atrium Find out more at: https://www.capitaland.com/sg/malls/rafflescity/en/ProjectGreen.html	Yes

We want to do our part, and at the same time, continue having a good life. In this video, through a conversation that anyone could have with a friend, the Earth Observatory of Singapore (EOS) addresses some of the challenges Singaporeans and citizens of the world might encounter when thinking about taking climate actions. EOS hopes that this can help voice out arguments, encourage people to have their own conversations and inspire them to take actions. This video is a part of a long-term collaboration between EOS and Science Centre Singapore. The Earth Observatory of Singapore is a Research Centre of Excellence at Nanyang Technological University which conducts fundamental research on earthquakes, tsunamis, volcanic eruptions, and climate change in and around Southeast Asia, toward safer and more sustainable societies. EOS' engagement and outreach activities aim to inform the public, inspire actions, and build a local and regional base of highly educated Earth and environmental scientists. Find out more at: www.youtube.com/EarthObservatoryofSingapore or follow @EarthObservatoryofSingapore on Facebook and Twitter	Yes
